

The Book Of Exodus

Crossing the Red Sea

St. Mary Coptic Orthodox Church,
East Brunswick, NJ. USA

Christ and Moses

- Christ calmed the sea by His word
- Christ walked on the water by His power
- Christ made Peter to walk on water by His power
- Moses was an instrument in God's hand
- Moses had to use God's rod

Christ and Salvation

Christ	Crossing the Red sea
Devil hardened his heart to kill Christ, He was tied up and lost his power	Pharaoh Hardened his heart, his soldiers destroyed
The devil did not pay attention to the darkness and disturbed nature during Christ's crucifixion	Pharaoh's chariots rushed into the sea though this is not natural
Christ destroyed the devil by the wood of the cross	Moses used God's rod to separate the sea so Pharaoh's power destroyed